	4.	Mahesh Gupta S/o Rajaram Gupta R/o Saranggarh, Distt. Raigarh (C.G.).

ORAL ORDER

(Passed on 11th August, 2006)

As on the date the permit was granted to the petitioner, the route in question was not formulated. That is the reason assigned by the State Transport Appellate Tribunal to set aside the order of the second respondent dated 29/04/2005. No exception could be taken. Subsequent formulation of the route would not regularize or legalize an apparent illegality committed by the Regional Transport Authority in granting the permit. After the formulation of the route, it is open for the petitioner and similarly circumstanced others to make applications for grant of permits on the route so formulated. That liberty is reserved to the petitioner. The writ petition is, therefore, dismissed. No costs.
